

Owingsville Outlook.

D. N. KESTLER, PUBLISHER.

OWINGSVILLE, KY.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1 YEAR IN ADVANCE.

THURSDAY, OCT. 1, 1896.

NATIONAL DEM. TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN McCAULEY PALMER,
OF Illinois.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
SIMON BOLIVAR BECKNER,
OF Kentucky.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.

Judge B. F. Day, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge in the Twenty-first Judicial district, composed of the counties of Bath, Menifee, Montgomery and Rowan.

M. S. Tyler, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge in this (the 21st) Judicial district.

Charles W. Nesbitt is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge of this district.

For Sheriff.

George T. Young, of Owingsville, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Bath county, with Seth Batts, of Sharpshur, as opponent.

John M. Jackson, of Wyoming, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Bath county.

For Jailor.

We are authorized to announce Samuel T. Jones, of White Oak, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailor of Bath county. Election, November, 1897.

John Jackson, of Preston, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailor of Bath Co.

Cabe S. Ratliff, of Bald Eagle, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailor of Bath county.

Public School Superintendent.

W. Jasper Lay, of near Owingsville, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Bath Co. Superintendent of Public Schools. Election, November, 1897.

Reformer Parkhurst denounced silverism from the pulpit in New York Sunday.

Senator Gray, the Democratic leader of Delaware, is speaking for Palmer and Buckner.

Buckner tried to break up the meeting at Philadelphia, but they were promptly quelled.

SEWELL has gold contracts; Altgeld takes gold leases; Stewart takes gold mortgages. These are leaders of the Populists, and that is howling for silver.

A lot of Yale College roughs treated Bryan to a specimen of their ruffianism last week and were mercilessly scored by the anti-Bryan journals for their meanness.

BRYAN voted for Weaver against Cleveland in 1892 by request of the National Democratic Committee. That robs Bryan of the credit he was trying to gain by it with the Populists.

HOODLUMS tried to break up the meeting at Richmond, Va., when Gen. Buckner spoke and it aroused such indignation that several of Bryan's supporters declared for Palmer and Buckner.

CHAS. L. JEWETT, late Democratic Chairman of the Indiana State Central Committee, has gone over entirely to the Republicans, announcing himself a protectionist and sound-money man.

DR. W. GODFREY HENDER, who managed the State Republican campaign when Bradley was elected, says he thinks McKinley will carry Kentucky by 20,000, and he thinks the silver Republicans number only 3,000.

Bryan is catching the true drift of events and is losing his temper. That tells plainly that he doesn't now feel so certain that he can gain the Presidency by a pretentious show of flashy, illogical rhetoric as he thought he could a short time ago.

SPEAKER BLANFORD, of the Kentucky House, says the free-turnpike riots in Washington and Anderson counties are what might be expected with the adoption of the Chicago platform; that would mean the beginning of the sway of anarchy in this country.

GEO. A. FREED was at the Republican headquarters in Louisville last week and they told him there was any quantity of money to bet that McKinley would carry Kentucky and the Republicans would give 10,000 plurality besides to voters that wanted to cover their money.

"It makes a straight Democrat a little tired to listen to lectures on bolting from a bolt of a year ago. Jo Blackburn last year was defying the regular Democratic organization in this State and denouncing its platform. Now, it is reported that he is so indignant against a bolt that he will not divide time with one at a public speaking. Perhaps he is afraid he cannot successfully defend his record as a consistent Democrat.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

In a speech at Philadelphia, referring to the Supreme Court, Tillman said: "McKinley is defeated by the Democratic party will take the rascally Judges by the throat and teach that there is yet liberty in the land." A sorry day for the United States it will be when that comes to pass.

THACHER has declined the Populists' nomination for Governor of New York. Blackburn is said to have admitted that he learned while in New York was hopeless. The likelihood is that Bryan will be worse defeated there than any nominee of a big party ever was.

THE National Democratic speakers are stamping the State pretty thoroughly. Among the appointments at our neighboring towns are Col. W. C. P. Brockbridge and Hon. John M. Jackson at Carlisle Oct. 7th; Hon. W. W. Dickerson at Mt. Sterling Oct. 10th; Senator Lindsay at Mt. Sterling Oct. 31st.

COL. MILES denies that Blackburn said no National Democratic speakers should address the people freely. The liar that is responsible for that dispatch from Richmond ought now to be made to acknowledge his motive. The National Democracy doesn't need or desire any lying done by anybody for any cause.

AFTER a conference with his friends, Judge Geo. Denny, of Lexington, says he will be a candidate for the 7th district Republican nomination for Congress in spite of the immense pressure being brought to bear by the Republicans against it. The latter want to support Brockbridge to defeat the Populists' nominee.

JUDGE C. W. GOODPASTER'S National Democratic speech at the Preston reunion is complimented as one of the strongest, most entertaining and best political addresses ever heard in Bath county. Judge is capable of doing that sort of thing, and he has the logic on his side, as well as the matured experience and monetary history of the world.

The supporters of the Chicago platform and ticket can hardly deny their appreciation of Populists any longer. Up to last Thursday they had fussed with the Populists in 23 States, which cast 241 electoral votes. Out of 244 electors, the Populists got 168, the Republicans 71, and the Republican Silverites 5. The Populists get two electors in Kentucky and every man that votes for Bryan casts 11-13 of a vote for Sewall and 2-13 for Watson.

D. H. SMITH by the sharp tactics of his managers won the Populists' Congressional nomination in the 4th district. David R. Murray and his manager claimed to have realigned a majority one or more times, but the result of the ballot was purposely not announced. Smith and Murray agreed to abide by the decision of the party Central Committee. The Committee confirmed Smith's nomination. Some of Murray's friends are so sure that they will likely vote against Smith if the Populist nominee remains in the race.

The silver Democratic delegates of Massachusetts held over from a Bryan rally, camped all night in the Music Hall at Boston, and held a so-called State convention, nominating Geo. Fred Williams for Governor. They looked out even a part of their own crowd, who held a branch convention and also nominated Williams. The Populists also endorsed Williams at the State convention. The sound-money Democrats nominated a Palmer and Buckner ticket. The action of the silverites is unprecedented, but everything that is in their favor goes now.

"DEMAGOGUE"—A leader of the rabble one who attempts to control the multitude by specious or deceitful arts; an unprincipled and factious mob orator or politician.—Webster's Dictionary.

Shall history mention that the Great American Republic was destroyed by demagogues in the last decade of the Nineteenth Century? It rests with the people to decide. Demagogues are the particular bane of republics and democracies. A knowledge of that fact led Lord Macaulay in his study of American institutions and history to write to an American friend his fear that demagoguery would cause the ruin of the United States.

According to a reporter for the Courier-Journal the chiefs of each party make the following claims in Kentucky:—

The Populists estimate on the 1892 vote that they will go to Louisville with 30,000 plurality. The National Democrats estimate their strength at 50,000, but don't know how it will be divided between Palmer and Buckner and McKinley and Hobart.

The Republicans claim the State by a safe plurality. They are now making a careful poll and are not ready to give figures.

The Populists claim that their nearly complete poll outside of Louisville warrants the estimate of 13,910 silver Republicans and 14,743 sound-money Democrats.

More down about all the tollgates in Washington county and threatened violence to the turnpike companies if they attempted to collect toll, just because a majority voted for free turnpikes. The rioters seemed to think that the law allowed them to vote away the companies' property without compensation and that the tollgates must go without due order of law, and not until after the roads were purchased and the owners delivered them to the county. A similar state of affairs exists in Anderson county. It is anarchical in the extreme and should impress upon the people everywhere the danger that is threatening all society by the present political agitation. When honest money advocates preach to the public that it is an incontrovertible fact that silverism will cause a silver dollar to be worth only about 50 cents and a paper dollar worth even less it undoubtedly appeals to the dishonesty of a few who would be willing to compromise their indebtedness at 50 cents or less on the dollar.

At this time the Government takes a fifty-cent disk of silver and stamps it one dollar, making it pass for a dollar by backing it up with the gold reserve. The people get the benefit of the difference between what that silver cost and what it passes for. That difference helps pay the cost of keeping the gold reserve.

By voting for silverism—that is, by voting for Bryan and Thomas—you vote in favor of the rich silver owner taking 50 cents' worth of silver and having the Government stamp it one dollar, the silver owner getting the benefit of the difference between the cost of the silver and its stamped valuation.

Of course, then the silver dollar will not be worth a dollar except in buying in a dollar's worth of debt. But suppose a man like this: A rich silver owner buys a $100,000 note for a silver dollar; he gives his note for it; when silverism carries he takes his silver and has it stamped in 200,000 dollars; then he pays for his silver with one half of what it cost him and has 100,000 fifty-cent dollars, making on the transaction on the present basis $50,000.

Compare Prices.

(New York Sun.)

One of the most interesting documents of the campaign was circulated last night among the thousands who attended the National State Convention of Democrats in the Brooklyn Academy of Music. It is a document which appeals to all rich and poor alike, and is as follows:—

"The following comparison between the price of goods in Mexico and the United States is furnished by the Mayor of El Paso, Tex., who has made a personal investigation, and certifies that it is correct:—

	United States	Mexico
Ham, per pound	10 1/2	12 1/2
Butter, per pound	10 1/2	12 1/2
Wheat, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Beans, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Onions, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Apples, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Oranges, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Peaches, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Plums, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Cherries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Strawberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Raspberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Blackberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Blueberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Black currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Red currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
White currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Green currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Black currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Red currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
White currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Green currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2

"Let 'er go, Gallagher, Mrs. Gallagher's coming."

FLEMING county has a stanch National Democratic following, and something near 125 of them went to hear Judge C. W. Goodpaster, Asst. 9th district Palmer and Buckner, expound the true faith, in his characteristic able manner, at Flemingsburg last Saturday.

There is nothing the silverites fear so much as having the people hear the unanswerable arguments against silverism, and hence they use all their influence to have the people stay away from National Democratic speaking, as well as to stop reading National Democratic newspapers. There is absolutely no rational argument to sustain the silverism of the Bryanites, and the silverites don't want their misstatements, reiterated known forgeries, false statistics, garbled and misapplied writings and speeches of both dead and living statesmen, and of other prominent men, and all their trashy campaign matter, exposed by men who are informed upon the true history and logic of the financial question.

"He who tampers with the currency robs labor of its bread. He panders, indeed, to greedy capital, which is keen-sighted and may shift for itself; but he beggars labor, which is honest, unsuspecting and too busy with the present to calculate for the future. The prosperity of the working classes lives and moves and has its being in established credit and a steady medium of payment. All sudden changes destroy it. Honest industry never comes in for any part of the spoils in that scramble which takes place when the currency of our country is disordered. Did wild schemes and profits ever benefit the industrious? Did violent fluctuations ever do good to him who depends on his daily labor for his daily bread? Did irredeemable bank paper [silver dollars] ever enrich the laborer? Certainly never. All these things may gratify greediness for sudden gain, or the rashness of daring speculation, but they can bring nothing but injury and distress to the homes of patient industry and honest labor."—Daniel Webster.

The following archaeological comic almanac remains were exhumed to point a moral.

A white man dropped in at a Sunday morning service of a colored minister and was astounded to hear the aged shepherd eloquently expounding to his flock that the place of eternal damnation was cursed with an ultra-Arctic temperature, where the atmosphere constantly sparkled with the crystals of hoar frost, where all lost souls went about with their frames bowed by the weight of the icicles hanging from their noses, where a chillbain and frost-bites were a perennial torture, and where even the blood in the arteries and veins was daily frozen as rigid as rods of iron, etc., etc.

When the congregation was dismissed the white man interrogated the preacher as to why he taught such a queer notion. The preacher replied: "See here, boss, if I was to tell them niggers what a hot place hell is all them old rheumatic ones would start to hells the first frosty mornin' in the fall."

When honest money advocates preach to the public that it is an incontrovertible fact that silverism will cause a silver dollar to be worth only about 50 cents and a paper dollar worth even less it undoubtedly appeals to the dishonesty of a few who would be willing to compromise their indebtedness at 50 cents or less on the dollar.

At this time the Government takes a fifty-cent disk of silver and stamps it one dollar, making it pass for a dollar by backing it up with the gold reserve. The people get the benefit of the difference between what that silver cost and what it passes for. That difference helps pay the cost of keeping the gold reserve.

By voting for silverism—that is, by voting for Bryan and Thomas—you vote in favor of the rich silver owner taking 50 cents' worth of silver and having the Government stamp it one dollar, the silver owner getting the benefit of the difference between the cost of the silver and its stamped valuation.

Of course, then the silver dollar will not be worth a dollar except in buying in a dollar's worth of debt. But suppose a man like this: A rich silver owner buys a $100,000 note for a silver dollar; he gives his note for it; when silverism carries he takes his silver and has it stamped in 200,000 dollars; then he pays for his silver with one half of what it cost him and has 100,000 fifty-cent dollars, making on the transaction on the present basis $50,000.

Compare Prices.

(New York Sun.)

One of the most interesting documents of the campaign was circulated last night among the thousands who attended the National State Convention of Democrats in the Brooklyn Academy of Music. It is a document which appeals to all rich and poor alike, and is as follows:—

"The following comparison between the price of goods in Mexico and the United States is furnished by the Mayor of El Paso, Tex., who has made a personal investigation, and certifies that it is correct:—

	United States	Mexico
Ham, per pound	10 1/2	12 1/2
Butter, per pound	10 1/2	12 1/2
Wheat, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Beans, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Onions, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Apples, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Oranges, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Peaches, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Plums, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Cherries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Strawberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Raspberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Blackberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Blueberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Black currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Red currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
White currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Green currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2

"Let 'er go, Gallagher, Mrs. Gallagher's coming."

FLEMING county has a stanch National Democratic following, and something near 125 of them went to hear Judge C. W. Goodpaster, Asst. 9th district Palmer and Buckner, expound the true faith, in his characteristic able manner, at Flemingsburg last Saturday.

There is nothing the silverites fear so much as having the people hear the unanswerable arguments against silverism, and hence they use all their influence to have the people stay away from National Democratic speaking, as well as to stop reading National Democratic newspapers. There is absolutely no rational argument to sustain the silverism of the Bryanites, and the silverites don't want their misstatements, reiterated known forgeries, false statistics, garbled and misapplied writings and speeches of both dead and living statesmen, and of other prominent men, and all their trashy campaign matter, exposed by men who are informed upon the true history and logic of the financial question.

"He who tampers with the currency robs labor of its bread. He panders, indeed, to greedy capital, which is keen-sighted and may shift for itself; but he beggars labor, which is honest, unsuspecting and too busy with the present to calculate for the future. The prosperity of the working classes lives and moves and has its being in established credit and a steady medium of payment. All sudden changes destroy it. Honest industry never comes in for any part of the spoils in that scramble which takes place when the currency of our country is disordered. Did wild schemes and profits ever benefit the industrious? Did violent fluctuations ever do good to him who depends on his daily labor for his daily bread? Did irredeemable bank paper [silver dollars] ever enrich the laborer? Certainly never. All these things may gratify greediness for sudden gain, or the rashness of daring speculation, but they can bring nothing but injury and distress to the homes of patient industry and honest labor."—Daniel Webster.

The following archaeological comic almanac remains were exhumed to point a moral.

A white man dropped in at a Sunday morning service of a colored minister and was astounded to hear the aged shepherd eloquently expounding to his flock that the place of eternal damnation was cursed with an ultra-Arctic temperature, where the atmosphere constantly sparkled with the crystals of hoar frost, where all lost souls went about with their frames bowed by the weight of the icicles hanging from their noses, where a chillbain and frost-bites were a perennial torture, and where even the blood in the arteries and veins was daily frozen as rigid as rods of iron, etc., etc.

When the congregation was dismissed the white man interrogated the preacher as to why he taught such a queer notion. The preacher replied: "See here, boss, if I was to tell them niggers what a hot place hell is all them old rheumatic ones would start to hells the first frosty mornin' in the fall."

When honest money advocates preach to the public that it is an incontrovertible fact that silverism will cause a silver dollar to be worth only about 50 cents and a paper dollar worth even less it undoubtedly appeals to the dishonesty of a few who would be willing to compromise their indebtedness at 50 cents or less on the dollar.

At this time the Government takes a fifty-cent disk of silver and stamps it one dollar, making it pass for a dollar by backing it up with the gold reserve. The people get the benefit of the difference between what that silver cost and what it passes for. That difference helps pay the cost of keeping the gold reserve.

By voting for silverism—that is, by voting for Bryan and Thomas—you vote in favor of the rich silver owner taking 50 cents' worth of silver and having the Government stamp it one dollar, the silver owner getting the benefit of the difference between the cost of the silver and its stamped valuation.

Of course, then the silver dollar will not be worth a dollar except in buying in a dollar's worth of debt. But suppose a man like this: A rich silver owner buys a $100,000 note for a silver dollar; he gives his note for it; when silverism carries he takes his silver and has it stamped in 200,000 dollars; then he pays for his silver with one half of what it cost him and has 100,000 fifty-cent dollars, making on the transaction on the present basis $50,000.

Compare Prices.

(New York Sun.)

One of the most interesting documents of the campaign was circulated last night among the thousands who attended the National State Convention of Democrats in the Brooklyn Academy of Music. It is a document which appeals to all rich and poor alike, and is as follows:—

"The following comparison between the price of goods in Mexico and the United States is furnished by the Mayor of El Paso, Tex., who has made a personal investigation, and certifies that it is correct:—

	United States	Mexico
Ham, per pound	10 1/2	12 1/2
Butter, per pound	10 1/2	12 1/2
Wheat, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Beans, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Onions, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Apples, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Oranges, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Peaches, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Plums, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Cherries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Strawberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Raspberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Blackberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Blueberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Black currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Red currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
White currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Green currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2

"Let 'er go, Gallagher, Mrs. Gallagher's coming."

FLEMING county has a stanch National Democratic following, and something near 125 of them went to hear Judge C. W. Goodpaster, Asst. 9th district Palmer and Buckner, expound the true faith, in his characteristic able manner, at Flemingsburg last Saturday.

There is nothing the silverites fear so much as having the people hear the unanswerable arguments against silverism, and hence they use all their influence to have the people stay away from National Democratic speaking, as well as to stop reading National Democratic newspapers. There is absolutely no rational argument to sustain the silverism of the Bryanites, and the silverites don't want their misstatements, reiterated known forgeries, false statistics, garbled and misapplied writings and speeches of both dead and living statesmen, and of other prominent men, and all their trashy campaign matter, exposed by men who are informed upon the true history and logic of the financial question.

"He who tampers with the currency robs labor of its bread. He panders, indeed, to greedy capital, which is keen-sighted and may shift for itself; but he beggars labor, which is honest, unsuspecting and too busy with the present to calculate for the future. The prosperity of the working classes lives and moves and has its being in established credit and a steady medium of payment. All sudden changes destroy it. Honest industry never comes in for any part of the spoils in that scramble which takes place when the currency of our country is disordered. Did wild schemes and profits ever benefit the industrious? Did violent fluctuations ever do good to him who depends on his daily labor for his daily bread? Did irredeemable bank paper [silver dollars] ever enrich the laborer? Certainly never. All these things may gratify greediness for sudden gain, or the rashness of daring speculation, but they can bring nothing but injury and distress to the homes of patient industry and honest labor."—Daniel Webster.

The following archaeological comic almanac remains were exhumed to point a moral.

A white man dropped in at a Sunday morning service of a colored minister and was astounded to hear the aged shepherd eloquently expounding to his flock that the place of eternal damnation was cursed with an ultra-Arctic temperature, where the atmosphere constantly sparkled with the crystals of hoar frost, where all lost souls went about with their frames bowed by the weight of the icicles hanging from their noses, where a chillbain and frost-bites were a perennial torture, and where even the blood in the arteries and veins was daily frozen as rigid as rods of iron, etc., etc.

When the congregation was dismissed the white man interrogated the preacher as to why he taught such a queer notion. The preacher replied: "See here, boss, if I was to tell them niggers what a hot place hell is all them old rheumatic ones would start to hells the first frosty mornin' in the fall."

When honest money advocates preach to the public that it is an incontrovertible fact that silverism will cause a silver dollar to be worth only about 50 cents and a paper dollar worth even less it undoubtedly appeals to the dishonesty of a few who would be willing to compromise their indebtedness at 50 cents or less on the dollar.

At this time the Government takes a fifty-cent disk of silver and stamps it one dollar, making it pass for a dollar by backing it up with the gold reserve. The people get the benefit of the difference between what that silver cost and what it passes for. That difference helps pay the cost of keeping the gold reserve.

By voting for silverism—that is, by voting for Bryan and Thomas—you vote in favor of the rich silver owner taking 50 cents' worth of silver and having the Government stamp it one dollar, the silver owner getting the benefit of the difference between the cost of the silver and its stamped valuation.

Of course, then the silver dollar will not be worth a dollar except in buying in a dollar's worth of debt. But suppose a man like this: A rich silver owner buys a $100,000 note for a silver dollar; he gives his note for it; when silverism carries he takes his silver and has it stamped in 200,000 dollars; then he pays for his silver with one half of what it cost him and has 100,000 fifty-cent dollars, making on the transaction on the present basis $50,000.

Compare Prices.

(New York Sun.)

One of the most interesting documents of the campaign was circulated last night among the thousands who attended the National State Convention of Democrats in the Brooklyn Academy of Music. It is a document which appeals to all rich and poor alike, and is as follows:—

"The following comparison between the price of goods in Mexico and the United States is furnished by the Mayor of El Paso, Tex., who has made a personal investigation, and certifies that it is correct:—

	United States	Mexico
Ham, per pound	10 1/2	12 1/2
Butter, per pound	10 1/2	12 1/2
Wheat, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Beans, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Onions, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Apples, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Oranges, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Peaches, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Plums, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Cherries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Strawberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Raspberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Blackberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Blueberries, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Black currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Red currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
White currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2
Green currants, per bushel	10 1/2	12 1/2

"Let 'er go, Gallagher, Mrs. Gallagher's coming."

FLEMING county has a stanch National Democratic following, and something near 125 of them went to hear Judge C. W. Goodpaster, Asst. 9th district Palmer and Buckner, expound the true faith, in his characteristic able manner, at Flemingsburg last Saturday.

There is nothing the silverites fear so much as having the people hear the unanswerable arguments against silverism, and hence they use all their influence to have the people stay away from National Democratic speaking, as well as to stop reading National Democratic newspapers. There is absolutely no rational argument to sustain the silverism of the Bryanites, and the silverites don't want their misstatements, reiterated known forgeries, false statistics, garbled and misapplied writings and speeches of both dead and living statesmen, and of other prominent men, and all their trashy campaign matter, exposed by men who are informed upon the true history and logic of the financial question.